Special Election

"There will be an election on November 20," said Warren Wells, student body president. "The election will be held to elect a new vice-president and an athletic commissioner. You will also have a chance to vote on the new revised form of the student body constitution."

Some of the laws in the new constitution are that the head yell leader will automatically become the commissioner of rallies, and the commissioner of publications will be elected two weeks after the beginning of the semester. This will allow freshmen a chance to be elected to that office. Also, a new ruling in the constitution will allow a person who has lived in this area for less than a semester to hold office.

MPC To Co-host State JC Conference

Students Working On 'Game & Gossip'

Oyar Kratins has been appointed picture editor of the college issue of Game & Gossip, in the latest staff change. Assisting him will be Bob Blaisdell and Richard Du Brau.

Other tentative staff appointments are Jim Angier and Shirley Ramsey as art editors, Dennis McFadden as advertising manager, and Rudy Martin as caption writer.

Student writers assigned so far are Diana Sherwood, Al Jones, Jim Angier, Jack Hilgers, and Joan Craig.

Among the faculty contributors are Dr. Haderlie, Dr. Balsam, Col. Anderson, and Mr. Huden, who will be the general coordinator of the college issue. Mr. Matteson, of the art department, is supervising all art contributions.

The position of student editor is still open.

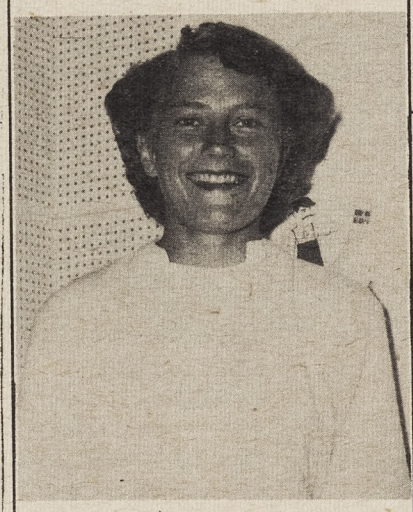

Thespians Organize

There is a new club on our Monterey Campus. The name of it is the "Thespians," and the sponsor is Mr. Sprague. This club works with the dramatics class on its spring play, and on several one-act plays during the year. Besides acting they will be doing make-up, directing, lighting, set designing, and producing. These plays will be presented before the student body at the Student Union during assemblies.

The constitution will be made up at the next meeting and the club hopes to be recognized by the Inter-club Council.

If you would like to join this club see Mr. Sprague.

El Paisano Staff

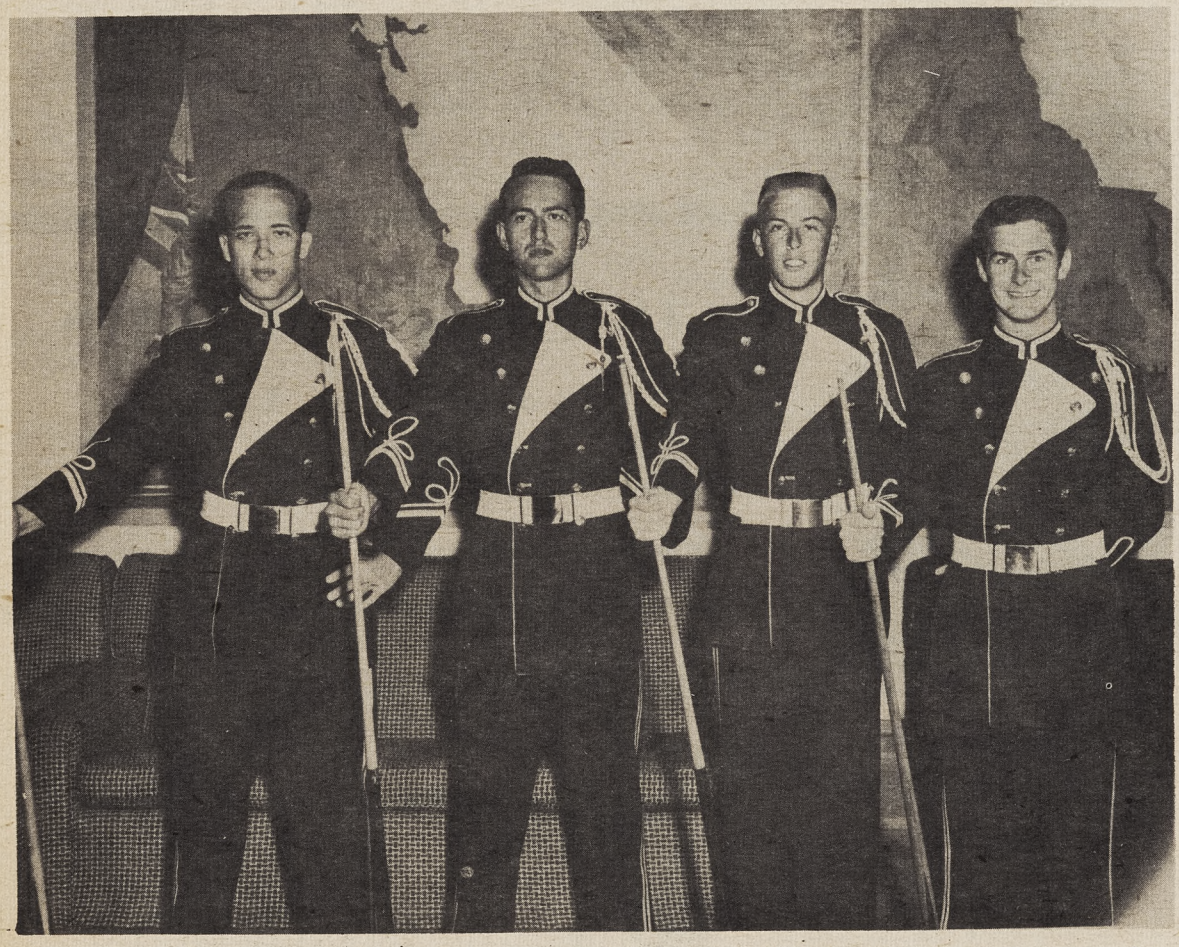

Pat Hansen, El Paisano Editor

Pat Hansen, of Santa Cruz, is the editor of El Paisano, the college yearbook, according to Mr. Huden, chairman of the journalism department.

Other members of the editorial staff at the present time are Pat Annand, Ron Fowler, and Shirley Vickery.

Beat Contra Costa

THEY ALSO PLAYED.....with the U.S. Navy Band at Fort Ord. Left to right are: Leroy Cooper, clarinet; Leslie Doolittle, trombone; Bob Blaisdell; bassoon; and Ernest Diridoni, bass. The proceeds of the concert, put on by the Monterey Kiwanis Club, will go toward the purchase of band uniforms for the local schools.

MPC and Vallejo to Host Student Govt. Conference

by Ralph Hamilton

The California Junior College Student Government Association will hold its semi-annual conference on November 19, 20, and 21. The conference this semester will be held at Asilomar with Monterey Peninsula College and Vallejo Junior College acting as hosts.

The purpose for this conference is to give representatives of the student governments of each junior collegd in California a chance to get together and discuss their mutual problems. Workshops of various aspects of student government will be held during the conference. Joe Spencer, our commissioner of finance will conduct the workshop dealing with student finance.

Representing MPC at the conference are Lorraine Bispo, Gloria Luzzi, Arlene Constanti, Warren Wells, Murray Aston, and Joe Spencer.

Eight girls to serve as secretaries are being supplied to the conference under the direction of Miss Misak.

Campus Cutie

Meet Cherie Addenin, brown-eyed brunette, from Carmel Valley who is assignment editor for El Yanqui. Cherie is a freshman and she's pretty fresh herself, so she told me. She is the one on the paper who gives all the other little workers their assignments.

She is a cute kid too. She likes boys. In fact she is engaged and plans to get hitched when she finishes MPC. She says, about her fiancee, Jerry Colman, "He is a terrific basketball player, and a plenty good track man." Then with a smirk, she whispered "He drives an orange hot rod that is plenty cool."

Cherie is writing the Campus Cuts for the Monterey Peninsula Herald, which is, to describe it briefly, the low down on all the college goings on. Cherie is very talented and with all her ingenuity, plans to go far in the field of journalism. She has her eye on the gossip column line as she just loves to tell about other people. She wants everybody to know what's going on. After all, look what Louella Parsons has done for the movies. Now just think what Cherie could do for the Monterey Peninsula.

AWS Scholarship

A new scholarship of $50 is being established by the AWS. It will differ from other scholarships because it will be awarded to an incoming sophomore girl. Details are now being worked out by a committee.

Another current project of the AWS is the Community Chest drive on campus, and plans are under way to have a "King Contest." Several masculine favorites will be chosen as candidates, then each candidate's picture will adorn a contribution container. Winner of the contest will be the candidate with the most money in his container.

Yearbook Portraits

Yearbook portraits will be taken after Christmas, according to Pat Annand, who is in charge of arranging sittings for the Monterey Studio which has been awarded the portrait contract.

This year the Monterey Studio plans to have a representative on campus, perhaps in the new photo studio, to shoot all the individual sophomore and freshman pictures.

Warren "Skip" Wells, new MPC student body president, says, "You'd better 'skip' down to Bud Giles and get on the fall fashion caravan."

DOWN BEAT

Ray Anthony, whose record of Dragnet is the biggest orchestral selling record of recent months, is one former Glenn Miller sideman who will not be seen in the upcoming film version of the late maestro's life. The young man, who joined the group in 1940 and left to go into the Navy in 1942, is too busy with his own band to take time off to do a stint in the films. After his four-year hitch in the service, the leader took up his trumpet and formed his own band, playing the top spots in the country. He is Capitol Records' number one band, and previous to Dragnet, his biggest hit was Nevertheless.

Talking about Dragnet, there's a plethora of recordings from television, following the same pattern set by all the discs based on film themes in the last few years. There's Melancholy Serenade from the Jackie Gleason show; Johnny Desmond etched Danger from the action program of the same name; and to lighten it all up now, there's Mr. Peepers from the comedy half-hour starring Wally Cox.

Look for an upsurge on the dancing front. The National Ballroom Operators of America are getting behind the move to get more people on the dance floors. There'll be a special contest during the summer, with loads of prizes for the best dancers; and a National Dance Week, promoted by Down Beat Magazine, with tie-ins with television and radio programs.

Eddy Arnold won Down Beat's first country and western disc jockey poll. Over 500 deejays were polled, and Arnold won the male singer's division; Kitty Wells, the female; Pee Wee King, the large band; Homer and Jethro the small units, and the Carlisles, the vocal group slot. Biggest c&w record was Your Cheating Heart; and the best tune, Crying in the Chapel.

Coast Turns...Eddie Cantor does a little better that the late Al Jolson, who warbled for Larry Parks in his life story. Cantor, who does the songlog for Keefe Brasselle in the film, "The Eddie Cantor Story," gets credit in an introductory prologue. Probably your folks remember better than you do, but Walt Disney films have inspired more song hits than any other source. Way back in 1933, Frank Churchill of the Disney staff knocked out, for "The Three Little Pigs" film, Who's Afraid of the Big, Bad Wolf, and then, until his death several years ago, did more than 30 hit tunes. His biggest success was "Snow White," in which he had eight hit numbers.

Jazz Scene...Look for some action on the English Musicians Union, which has banned American band appearances in Britain. Sensational tours just finished by Lionel Hampton and Stan Kenton, have the fans in an uproar. More than 3,000 Kentonites took special trains and boats from England, to attend the concerts by the meastro in Ireland...incidentally, Kenton cancelled his scheduled tour with Duke Ellington, claiming that it was all a mistake, and that both were too big to do joint concerts...Dixieland is still strong, a recent bash on the Coast bringing in a smash $18,000.

The familiar voice that you hear calling the play by play action of MPC football over KMBY belongs to Ed Dickenson. Ed, born in Flint, Michigan, 27 years ago, has been with KMBY for the past two years.

Ed attended San Jose State and majored in Speech and Drama and while at San Jose State did some air work with two of the San Jose stations. His first permanent job in radio began at KELK in Elko, Nevada.

Alumni News

PHOENIX, Arizona--(Special)--Gail Roy Fraties, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Fraties of 406 Font Boulevard, c/o Parkmerced, San Francisco, California, has enrolled as a member of the June 1954 class of the American Institute for Foreign Trade at Thunderbird Field, Phoenix, Arizona.

Specializing in South America, Fraties is taking the school's intensive training course in preparation for a career in American business or government abroad.

Fraties is a graduate of Carmel High, Carmel, California, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Stanford University in 1952. He also attended Stanford Law School for one year. He is a member of Theta Chi Fraternity, and participated in football while attending Monterey Junior College from 1948 to 1950.

Fraties served with the U. S. Army of Occupation in Korea from 1946 to 1948 as a machine gun squad leader, an ambulance driver and a medical supply sergeant. He is now a second lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

The course of study at the Institute concentrates techniques of international business administration, foreign languages and characteristics of foreign countries.

A first solo flight was made by Naval Aviation Cadet Shelton M. Burwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Burwell of 632 Hilkcrest Avr., Pacific Grove, Calif. He attended Monterey Peninsula College in Monterey before entering the Naval Aviation Flight Training Program at the Naval Air Station, Oakland.

The flight was completed at the U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Whiting Field, here. The Cadet will now receive instruction in precision air work and aerobatics along with his regular solo flights.

When Ed was first planning on a career, he wanted to be a coach. But from advice from a coach who was a good friend of his, radio became his chosen profession.

Working with him at the MPC football games, and also the Monterey Union High School games, is Jimmy Griffen.

Editorial

What has happened to our teams' rooters? Any team, whether it has lost a few games or not, needs rooters. The crowd at the Shasta game was very good as far as rooters were concerned. But the older folks were still home watching their television sets. At Menlo Park there were very few rooters for MPC. Why? There would have been a rooter's bus for one dollar a round trip if there had been only 37 people. The bus did not go. There apparently weren't even 37 people willing to go to Menlo and cheer for our team.

Now let's build up a little more enthusiasm and see if we can get a rooter's bus full for the game next week at College of Sequoias in Visalia. R.B.H.

Drama

A one act play entitled "The Twelve Pound Look" by Sir James M. Barrie will be given in the Student Union for the assembly on November 20. The play which will be presented arena style, like the Golden Bough Playhouse, will star Janet McFail playing Lady Sims, Tom McMillan as Sir Harry, JoAnn Fowler as Kate, and Fuzzy Foote as Tombes, the butler. The play, the first of the season, is directed by Janet "Mickey" McFail.

New Shelving

We have some new book shelves in the reference alcove of our library and also a new card catalog. The old card catalog had to be rearranged to fit in with the new one.

Lobos Set For Viking Invasion

Hope To Stop Contra Costa Highly Rated Eleven

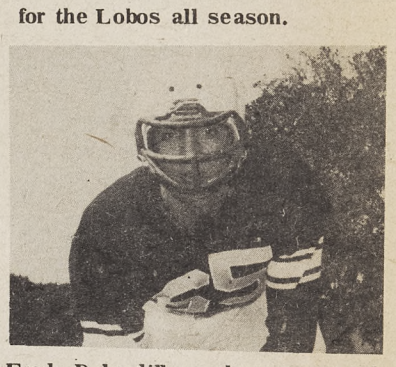

Lobo Jack Russo (81) displays Monterey's aerial attack against the Menlo Oaks. Fritz Meyers (58) comes in to help clear the way.

The Lobos have been smoothing off the "rough edges" of their gridiron machine this past week with many hours of intensive practice. This rigorous polishing up period is in preparation for their tilt with the Contra Costa Vikings tomorrow night. Although the have played some pretty good teams this year, Contra Costa will probably prove the toughest foe yet. This junior college team which hails from Concord is rated number two in the nation, boasting six victories against only one loss this year. The Lobos claiming only two victories and one tie against four losses are thus rated the underdog in tomorrow's clash. Not impressed by statistics, however, the Lobos will be out to topple this titan team in what should be one of the hardest fought games this year.

John Lewis has been a big gainer for the Lobos all season.

Fred Delgadillo, whose 70 yard run for a touchdown, electrified Lobo rooters in the Shasta game.

Lobos Shatter Shasta Knights

Highlighted by a 70 yard touchdown ramble by Fred Delgadillo, the Lobos strongly defeated the Shasta Knights 25-13.

The Shasta win was number two for Monterey. The Lobos now have a season total of 2 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie.

The first Lobo touchdown was made by John Lewis on a drive around right end after Monterey had advanced from their own 46 to the Shasta 8.

Early in the second period John Coniglio crashed the end zone for an added six points. Doug Forzani kicked the conversion. Monterey lead 13-0. Before Shasta could get organized the Lobos had scored again. This time Delgadillo raced 70 yards to score the third Lobo touchdown.

Charles Clark of the Knights cut the lead to 19-6 on a one yard plunge in the third quarter.

The last touchdown of the third quarter went to the Lobos when Coniglio passed to Delgadillo for a five yard gain into the end zone.

Shasta wound up the scoring for the game in the fourth quarter. Clark dashed 10 yards to pay dirt. The conversion was added on an end sweep.

Outstanding players for the Lobos were Coniglio, Delgadillo and Walt Langford, offensive end.

Howell Leaves

The unpredictable Lobos lost another player, last week, in the person of Charlie Howell, lanky end from Monterey. Charlie played his last Maroon-clad game against the Menlo Oaks on the 24th of October.

Standing six feet seven, Charlie constituted MPC's sky hook in their passing offense. On defense Howell showed up in stopping end sweeps and runs at the first of the season.

This vacancy has been capably filled by Myron Branson of Carmel, the only Padre to place on the all-CCAL list. Branson was an important part of the Lobo forward wall when MPC battered the Shasta Mountainmen 25-13 in last Saturday's game.

In a strategy session John Coniglio and backfield coach Don Borden outline a plan to beat Shasta. Nelson, center, didn't get a chance to see how the plan worked out as he joined the Marines. Beadnell, whose hairline is visible over Coniglio's head, helped black out the Knights.

MPC Coeds Entertain Soldiers at Fort Ord

A Real Live Doll

by Al Jones

Say "Hi!" to Lois Walden and see what happens. Most likely you'll get the prettiest smile and the cutest little wink on the campus.

Lois stands 5 feet tall, has light brown hair and sparkling blue eyes that seem to engulf life itself.

Lois was born in Champaine, Illinois, 19 years ago. Her parents are living in Chicago and Lois is staying with her aunt and uncle while attending MPC. Her uncle is the man who toots the whistle and rings the bell on a genuine choo-choo train. In other words, an engineer.

When I asked Lois if she intended to be an engineer also, I got a a pleasant giggle. "No," she said, "I am interested in bugs, so I am going to be an X-Ray technician." She is carrying 14 credits in that direction, so I guess she knows where she is headed. But, personally, I think she ought to be an engine tooter.

Lois was stricken with polio in 1945, when she was 10 years old, in St. Louis, Missouri. She says she hopes to throw away her crutches in another year. She wore braces for a while and threw those away. No doubt, she will throw the crutches away too.

Lois was graduated from Watsonville high last year and knows lots of the kids there. It's a cinch they all know her, because she is truly a real, live doll.

El Yanqui Helps Scouts

El Yanqui is cooperating in an initial survey to locate all former scouts and scouters of the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley, California Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The purpose of this survey is to measure, through a subsequent questionnaire, the benefits a boy receives in his earlier scouting years as measured by advantages gained in adult life--because of his Scouting experiences.

This is the "follow-through" on everything the Boy Scout Program was intended to accomplish and the findings compiled will be turned over to the National Council.

Over 75,000 boys have been processed through the Scouting Program in this one Council during the past 30 years.

All former scouts and scouters affected by this initial survey are requested to send their name, present address and former troop affiliation at once to:

Know Your Student Council

by Jane Lowrey

The election date for filling the vice-president and commissioner of athletics offices has been set by the Executive Council for November 20. The revised student body constitution will also be presented for adoption at that time.

A major proposed change concerns the commissioner of rallies and assemblies office. A measure dividing the office into two, those of Commissioner of Assemblies and Commissioner of Rallies, is proposed. The head yell-leader will, according to the amendment, serve one year as yell-leader and as Commissioner of Rallies for the fall semester, with the Commissioner of Assemblies taking over any duties coming under that office during the spring semester.

Another measure, changing the Executive Council quorum from six to eight, is also to be approved.

Five delegates have been chosen to attend the fall State Conference at Asilomar on November 19, 20, and 21. Those attending will be Gloria Luzzi, Lorraine Bispo, Arlene Constanti, Warren Wells, and Murray Aston. Joe Spencer will also attend, acting as chairman of the workshop on finance.

Contrary to information presented last issue about office eligibility, a student is restricted by the Inter-Club Council constitution to holding no more than two offices at a time.
